Mother in law Gail

Father in law Mark

Gail's husband Andrew

Mark's wife Vivian

So that is why I call them like this in the cartoon.

But Mev answered very calmy and it surprised me.

In Korea,
it still seems that when parents divorce it means that the child only has half a family.

Family Relatianship

If we look at it,
Mev has two families

One is his mother Gail's family and the other one is his father Mark's family.

Gail and Mark got divorced and later re-married with other partners.

When we started to be close to each other and were learning more about each other....

.. I asked this question very nervously and carefully.

But here, well, at least for Mev, his family got doubled
It doesn't matter if they share the same blood or not

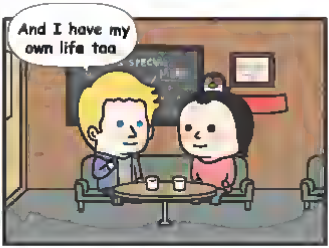
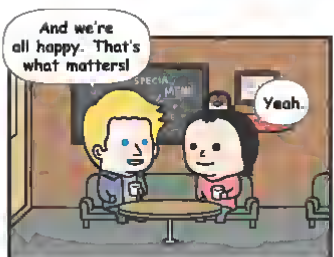
He didn't blame them



And he'd rather live his life well instead of being deeply hurt by it.



Then, it seems that everybody can be happier.

I know that it is not easy at all.

But, if there is someone who is shedding a tear right now because they are in a difficult family relationship.

Of course it doesn't mean that Mev wasn't sad that his parents got divorced

But he respected their decision because his parents have their own lives.

I'd like to tell you one thing.

" Don't let the problem control your life. "
